HUDSON EYE

AUGUST 23 —
SEPTEMBER 2, 2019

STIMULATING CREATIVITY. EXPANDING DIVERSITY. A 10-VENUE, 10-ARTIST LOCAL SERIES.

Following 10 years of local activity, Jonah Bokaer Arts Foundation presents its inaugural new program, The Hudson Eye, arranged by curator Aaron Levi Garvey. This new annual series stimulates cultural and economic diversity in the area, taking place August 23 - September 2, 2019 timed through Labor Day Weekend in historic downtown Hudson, NY. The Hudson Eye is an artist-driven 10-day public program and urban showcase, with a focus on dance, music, performance, film, visual art, dining out, nightlife, and daily "Hot Topic" panels at 1:00pm daily.

The Hudson Eye is supported by an anonymous $50,000 local Hudson Matching Grant Challenge, to stimulate Local Giving.

The Hudson Eye is supported by a City Of Hudson Arts, Entertainment & Tourism Grant, a Finance Committee Grant.
